

HARDSCRABBLE

PARADE

Sept. 24 2011

Before you know it summer will be over and we will once again be celebrating Red Hook's town and village history with our annual Hardscrabble Day festivities. Each year we try to show off Red Hook, its people and traditions to the thousands of visitors that join us on that day. This year, on Sept. 24th the Hardscrabble Community Association invites you to participate in the parade. The committee is looking at Red Hook – RIGHT HERE, RIGHT NOW; focusing on local shopping, supporting our local farmers, continued support for the 10% challenge and public awareness on energy issues. Please keep in mind that Red Hook will celebrate its 200th birthday in 2012. Red Hook has an active Bicentennial Committee preparing many wonderful events.

Please join us, bring your friends and families, and enjoy what only Red Hook can offer. After the parade ends we will continue the day with a party of fun, food and music capping off the evening with the Robert Randolph & The Family Band. Recognition and trophies will be presented to several of the parade entries. The parade will start at 4:00 pm at the Red Hook Linden Ave. School with lineup at 3:15 pm.

Fill out the attached form to ensure that you are listed in the lineup and the correct information can be given to the announcers.

If you have any questions feel free to contact one of the parade committee members listed below. Thank you in advance for your support and we look forward to seeing you on the 24th.
